The Journal of the Professoriate (JOP) is a peer-reviewed journal that promotes critical analysis among scholars and policymakers on issues affecting all college and university faculty in America and abroad. The mission of the Journal of the Professoriate is to provide an outlet for research and scholarship on issues pertaining to the pathways leading to the professoriate as well as issues relevant to college and university faculty within academe and the global society.

The Journal of the Professoriate is interdisciplinary in design and offers empirical research (i.e. quantitative and qualitative methodologies) as well as theoretical discussions. The Journal of the Professoriate will address many of, but is not limited to, the following issues:

- a) The impact of faculty on student development
- b) The role, experiences, and outcomes of faculty at two-year and four-year colleges and other postsecondary settings
- c) Diversity issues that impact college faculty
- d) Organization, leadership, and legal issues impacting college faculty
- e) Issues pertaining to the utilization of technology by college and university faculty
- f) Issues concerning faculty unionization, interactions between faculty and other university personal, collective bargaining, academic freedom, adjunct faculty, instructional staff, and other special faculty appointments
- g) Comparative studies of faculty in America and abroad.
