

in conjunction with The Urban Education Collaborative at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte present the

2013 CAARP Annual National Summit

"Mentoring: The Power of Multilevel & Multidirectional Support and Information-Sharing Relationships"

The CAARP Annual National Summit is designed to engage university faculty, graduate/professional students, K-12 educators, community members and other practitioners and researchers in the collective identification of challenges facing the African American community as well as the development, presentation, and dissemination of viable solutions.

September 13 – 15, 2013

UNC Charlotte Center City • Charlotte, NC

To register or obtain more info, please visit www.caarpweb.com or contact Dr. Ivan Turnipseed, Asst. Director for Programs & Initiatives, at programs@caarpweb.com or (702) 767-0620.

2013 CAARP Annual National Summit

Early Registration (on or before August 16) → $149
($119 for undergraduate students)

Late Registration (on or after August 17) → $179
($149 for undergraduate students)

Hotel: Courtyard Charlotte SouthPark → $79 nightly

Call for Proposals due by August 16**

www.caarpweb.com